MESSAGE
TO YOU

Fellow friends and Otakus,

This year's planning and progress has been the most tenacious and demanding of the team yet. We've moved mountains and parted seas to arrive at where we are today. In doing so, I'm humbled and awestruck at the selflessness and devotion this team gives. A team I can only describe as, superlative – of the highest kind, quality, or degree.

But with what purpose would this team have, if not for the amazing community that we're so privileged to serve? A community that's been so unbelievably passionate and insatiable. I find myself in wonder at how the culture of Japan and Anime can be so unfathomably contagious and addicting. For the longest time, I assumed I was alone for my passion to this obsession. I quickly learned (and was overjoyed), that I am not so alone after all (and neither are you).

Somehow, the stories in Anime and Manga have the power to transcend borders and cultures, all the while creating a rippling effect, serendipitously connecting the hearts and minds of thousands upon thousands. However this is accomplished, I'm just incredibly honoured that I can be part of the puzzle that miraculously connects people of all races, ages, and places.

So on behalf of our entire team, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you for inspiring, encouraging, and giving us purpose. We will continue to defy the odds and make Canada home to all those with the appreciation and passion for all things Japan.

With highest regards,

Can Ngo
President, Anime Revolution Events

And a Special Thanks to Our Comrades

Meet AniRevo's Image Character!

If you've heard or seen us before today, then you've probably seen our blue-haired, megaphone totting, spunky mascot! A lot of people have asked us who she is, or what anime is she from, so we'll answer that here!

Senmei (short for Senkaku Mei 千華 メイ) is AniRevo's Image Character! Coming from a dystopian future where Japanese & Anime Pop Culture has almost vanished, Senmei was sent back in time to prevent that from happening! Although her planned destination was present Tokyo, Japan, she ended up being stranded on the other side of the world, all due to a slight miscalculation (they wanted her to arrive half a day earlier, but forgot to account for the Earth's rotation! Oops!).

Now stranded in Vancouver, Canada- Senmei finds AniRevo and makes it her new mission to spread Japanese and Anime Pop Culture in Vancouver, BC. What better way to preserve the culture than to spread the love outside of Japan, starting from beautiful British Columbia!

Before finding AniRevo, Senmei was often mistaken for as a racequeen or promo model due to the design of her uniform. She inevitably becomes one after joining AniRevo, acting as their Image Character and Brand Ambassador.
