01 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings Attendees!

Welcome to the 4th anniversary of Anime Revolution (AniRevo for short). Traditionally I thank you (the attendees) for coming to the show. This year, I'd like to dedicate some time to recognize and thank the amazing talents of the entire team. The ones in pink, blue, maid uniforms, and black are the true heroes of our con. They pour so much of their time into organizing this event and I wish I could thank each and every one of them. However, there are a few I'd like to embarrass and call out:

Reynold Raj – Thank you for being the personification of reliable, trustworthy, and dedicated.

Stephanie Dinh – Thank you for your tireless efforts, commitment to kindness, and motherly care for the entire team.

Radius Kuntoro – Thank you for your continuous calm composure, unshakable confidence, and your admirable work ethic.

Jeremy Androsoff – Thank you for committing your heart to all that you do, your passionate opinions, and your devotion to the attendees.

Arika Matsumoto – Thank you for being our bridge to Japan and being the ambassador of perseverance, graciousness, and selflessness.

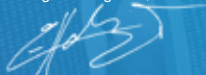

Sidney Chu – Thank you for never giving up, accomplishing the impossible, and your tenacity for perfection.

James Howard – Thank you for your enthusiasm, endless amounts of energy, and being the comedic relief we often need.

To the rest of the staff, volunteers, and maids, I honestly can't thank you enough for being such amazing people, workaholics, and friends. We've grown this con to over 13,000 and haven't shown signs of slowing. This miraculous growth is definitely your fault and I applaud and appreciate your success.

Here's to another year of fun, torment, and memories!

With highest regards,

Can Ngo
President, Anime Revolution Events

And a Special Thanks to Our Comrades
